Coburns Road closure

We've removed the level crossings at Hopkins Road in Truganina and Ferris Road in Melton. The new modern and accessible Melton Station will open on Tuesday 1 September and the boom gates will be gone at Coburns and Exford roads making Melton level crossing free in September.

We're closing Coburns Road between James Melrose Drive and Staughton Street from 1am, Sunday 6 September to 7am, Thursday 24 September. During this time we'll work 24 hours a day in the Melton Station precinct.

We're also closing the northbound lane on Rees Road between Wilson Road and Staughton Street to build a new bus driveway and resurface the road from 7am, Saturday 19 September to 7am, Thursday 24 September.

Where and when we'll be working

Location	Date and time	Activity
Coburns Road	From 1am, Sunday 6 September to 7am, Thursday 24 September	- Road closed between James Melrose Drive and Staughton Street for road resurfacing and drainage works - Vehicle and pedestrian detours in place. Please see map over the page.
Brooklyn Road between Exford Road and Hazel Street	From Monday 7 September to late 2026	- Temporary closure of the southern footpath with pedestrian detours in place - Overnight closure for traffic barriers movements as required - Temporary lane closures and temporary closure of on street parking spaces
Rees Road	From 7am, Saturday 19 September to 7am, Thursday 24 September	Closure of the northbound lane between Wilson Road and Staughton Street

What to expect

- Works 24 hours a day, with increased lighting, noise, vibration and traffic in the area
- Traffic delays with detours in place from 1am, Sunday 6 September to 7am, Thursday 24 September
- Increased truck movements
- Dust minimised with watercarts.

Intermittent lane closures around the Melton Station precinct may be required as works progress. Traffic management will be in place to help guide you round the area. Please allow extra travel time.

Pedestrian access and access to homes and businesses will be maintained at all times.

We'll make every effort to complete works on schedule; however, dates and times are subject to change.
